GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Jan. 29.— Eight jurors were tentatively accept-ed by the prosecution and defense when the trial of the alleged Michigan election fraud cases, involving United States Senator Trumin H. Newberry and 134 others, was re-sumed in United States district ourt here today. District attorneys hoped to be able to complete the jury before the end of the week, and probably start openng arguments. Several witnesses summoned by the Government were allowed to return to their homes today when it was shown that they would not be needed before the early part of next Attorneys for the defense added several new questions to the list of hose put to prospective jurors. Each juror is asked if he deals in automobiles, or ever had any dealings with the Ford Motor Company. Henry Ford was Newberry's opponent for he United States Senate at the 1918 elections, when the fraud is alleged o have taken place.
